The screenshot shows the homepage of the National Livestock Readiness Program. At the top left is the NLRP logo, followed by the text "NATIONAL LIVESTOCK READINESS PROGRAM" and a search bar. Below this is a banner image of goats with the text "National Livestock Readiness Program". A navigation menu includes "Home", "Planning", "Training", "Knowledge Products", and "Regional Organizations". The main content area features a section titled "Effective animal disease outbreak response" with a sub-section "Intro to Ag Emergency Response Planning". A sidebar on the left contains links for "Home", "About", "Partners", "Events", "Glossary", and "2018 NLRP Workshop Agenda". At the bottom, there is a footer with contact information and social media icons.

This screenshot shows a dropdown menu on the website. The menu is open, displaying options: "Home", "About", "Partners", "Events", "Glossary", "2018 NLRP Workshop Agenda", "National Livestock Readiness Program (NLRP)", "National Agricultural Biosecurity Center (NABC)", "Intro to Ag Emergency Response Planning", "NLRP Toolkit", "Workshops", and "Resources". The "Intro to Ag Emergency Response Planning" option is circled in red. The background shows a blurred image of goats and the text "National Lives".
